In 1925 El Nido was founded on the principle that a child cannot grow up twice. That profound and powerful idea guides our family-strengthening programs today. Each year our multicultural staff of over 150 helps to transform the lives of more than 10,000 Los Angeles residents living in poverty. Clients span the life cycle, from expectant mothers and children before birth to infants and toddlers, teens, parents of all ages and grandparent caregivers.

OUR VISION

Healthy families and communities that provide the resources and support for all young people to attain their full potential.
