Yasiel Puig's Wild Horse Children's Foundation Continues Partnership with El Nido Family Centers to Provide Groceries, Supplies, and a Hot Meal to Local Families

WHO/WHAT : About 600 families enrolled in El Nido Family Centers' programs will receive fifty pound boxes filled with about essential items each such as groceries, safety items, and a hot meal.

Families will receive products from supporting brands such as LA Food Bank, Magalys Tamales, George Lopez's Chingon Bakery, Baby2Baby, Del Monte, Giving Children Hope, DJ Severe, Skin Guru, Be Mi Cleaning & Supplies, Brewline Men's Fellowship and the Port of Hueneme.

WHEN: Friday, June 26, 2020 and Monday, June 29, 2020 from 10 AM – 2 PM PST

WHERE: El Nido Family Centers located at 11243 Glenoaks Boulevard, Pacoima, CA 91331

NOTE: This is not a public event. Benefiting families have been pre-selected and invited. Families have been designated for media availability throughout the duration of the event.

Although Yasiel Puig will not be on-site, he will be available for virtual interviews. Friday, June 26 will coincide with the end of the MLB transaction freeze, which will allow teams to sign free agent players including Puig.

Members of the media who plan to attend are asked to RSVP to Emily Reza at ereza@bhscglobal.com.

About El Nido Family Centers

El Nido Family Centers is a social service non-profit agency. For almost a century, El Nido has built children and parents' emotional security and well-being by providing early childhood programs; provided ongoing support to help children succeed in school; provided financial and housing stability; helped keep kids from gangs and risk factors; helped prevent early pregnancies; and guided students with the college transition and developed a pathway to career success. El Nido's commitment is to serve low-income families that do not have the resources to provide for themselves. For more information, please visit www.elnidofamilycenters.org. El Nido Family Centers is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Tax ID# 95-3186429.
